ARMY RULES

MARTIAL KA'TAH

The Adeptus Custodes have developed many thousands of martial ka'tahs. Custodians are proficient in many of these arts, shifting stances according to the battlefield situation.

At the start of your Command phase, friendly ADEPTUS CUSTODES units with this ability are readied. While a friendly unit is readied, you can select one of the ka'tah abilities presented below for that unit to use. If you do, that unit is no longer readied.

Each ka'tah ability will tell you when that ka'tah ability can be used, and the effects that ka'tah ability has on the unit using it.

We recommend placing a token next to each readied unit, removing it when that unit is no longer readied.

Favoured Ka'tah

Many of the most prominent shield hosts favour a specific martial ka'tah above all others.

All detachments tagged 'Unique: Shield Host' state a Favoured Ka'tah. If you selected one of these detachments, the ka'tah ability that is the Favoured Ka'tah of that detachment grants the additional effect listed in that detachment.

> Example: If you selected the Solar Watch detachment, when you select the Calistus ka'tah ability for a readied unit, that unit has +2" M in addition to the normal effect of Calistus.*

ARMY RULE

Focused Ka'tah

In the claustrophobic battlegrounds of voidship interiors, even the lone champions of the Adeptus Custodes find benefit in focussing their efforts upon certain, particularly beneficial fighting styles.

Units from your army with the Martial Ka'tah ability retain that ability and gain this one.

However, you no longer select a Ka'tah Stance each time a unit with the Martial Ka'tah ability is selected to fight. Instead, at the start of the Fight phase, you can select one Ka'tah Stance. Until the end of the phase, the selected Stance is active for your army and units from your army with the Martial Ka'tah ability gain the relevant ability. Each Ka'tah Stance can only be selected once per battle.

MUSTERING A BOARDING PATROL

You can include up to two of the following units (duplicates are not allowed):

- ALEYA
- KNIGHT-CENTURA

If you include only one other CHARACTER unit, you can include up to one of the following units:

Each Ka'tah Stance can only be selected once per battle.

DETACHMENT RULE

With merciless efficiency, the Sisters of Silence mark their priority prey amidst the maelstrom of shiphoard combat, then focus on their elimination above all else.

At the start of the first battle round, you can select up to two enemy units to be your army's quarry, one of which must be your opponents WARLORD. Each time an ANATHEMA PSYKANA unit from your army makes an attack that targets one of your army's quarries, re-roll a Hit roll of 1. Each time an ANATHEMA PSYKANA unit from your army declares a charge, it can include one or more of your army's quarries as targets of that charge, even if they are not visible to it.

ENHANCEMENTS

THE VRATINE AQUILA (AURA)

This ancient device is said to have been crafted for use during a vital conclave during the waning days of the Great Crusade, wreathing its bearer in energy veils.

ANATHEMA PSYKANA model only. While a friendly ANATHEMA PSYKANA unit is within 3" of the bearer, models in that unit have a 4+ invulnerable save.

SINISTER PRESENCE (AURA)

So deeply unsettling is the null aura surrounding this warrior that it causes unreasoning paranoia to spread amongst her foes, shattering their focus.

ANATHEMA PSYKANA model only. While an enemy unit is within 6" of the bearer (when measuring this distance, Walls and closed Hatchways are ignored), that unit cannot Seize objective markers and, in your opponent's Command phase, that unit must take a Battle-shock lest.
